Our working conditions, procedures and processes have changed over the years as the Association has grown as well as changes in our industry to the guidelines. These changes necessitate a review in the Association's policies and practises from time to time. 1. INTRODUCTION

The Alzheimer's Association of Queensland prides itself in delivering excellent care.

The Association is committed to providing quality care services to its consumers and operates within a quality management framework. Continuous improvement is an important component in providing excellent quality care and consumers and/or their families/carers and staff are encouraged to participate in the improvement process by completing surveys and submitting improvement ideas to the Managers. All suggestions are gratefully received and are explored as to their feasibility, taking into consideration the interest/wishes of other consumers, the philosophy of the Association, budgetary constraints, practical implications and, most importantly, the improved outcome for Consumers. These improvements are reported to all staff at staff meetings.

The Association owns and operates four Multi Service Centres within Queensland:

An organisational chart for the organisation is also attached.

2. CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

Your employment is governed by a Modern Award. This instrument outlines your employment conditions as specified in the Fair Work Act 2009. Your letter of offer and terms and conditions of employment will form the basis of your employment.

3. ORIENTATION

Your Manager is one of many who want you to succeed in your job. Only by working together as a team with our Managers and other employees can we continue to be successful and at the same time deliver excellent outcomes for our consumers.

Your Manager is an experienced employee who will give you full opportunity to learn the best ways of doing your work. If you have any problem or difficulty in performing your work properly or if you have a question about any job duties, please talk over your problem with your immediate Manager. He or she is always willing to help you and is the best source of information.

4. WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT FROM US

4.1 Annual Leave

Annual leave entitlement is in accordance with the current modern awards; Social, Community, Home Care and Disability Services Industry Award, Aged Care Award 2010, Health Professionals and Support Services Award 2010, and the National Employment Standards (NES). Copies of the relevant awards and National Employment Standards are kept on site in the office. Annual leave (applicable only for permanent part time or permanent full time employees) will accrue progressively throughout the year based on the employee's ordinary hours of work.

If new employees (permanent part time or full time) terminate at any time within the first twelve (12) months of joining the Association they will receive a pro rata annual leave payment, or as per the Award.

All annual leave (paid or unpaid) requests must be submitted to your Manager as soon as possible. Approval for leave will be based upon the needs of the Association and can be taken not less than (1) week's duration. However, up to one (1) week's leave may be taken daily, but at least twenty-one (21) days' notice should be given in writing to the Manager on the leave application form.

Staff employed by the Alzheimer's Association of Queensland must not accrue more than one (1.0) years' annual leave entitlement and should arrange to take annual leave as it falls due.

If you have any specific requests regarding your annual leave period, it is asked that you put these in writing as early as possible. While reasonable consideration is given to your requests, the final discretion on timings for leave rests with the Manager.

Only under specific circumstances will unpaid leave be granted for permanent and full time staff and will be at the discretion of the Manager. Adequate notice must be given of intent for unpaid leave, and the request must be sought in writing on the leave application form.

4.2 Long Service Leave

Long service leave entitlement is in accordance with current modern awards; Social, Community, Home Care and Disability Services Industry Award, Aged Care Award 2010, Health Professionals and Support Services Award 2010 and the National Employment Standards (NES). Copies of the relevant awards and National Employment Standards are kept on site in the office.

4.3 Parental Leave

Parental leave allows employees to take time away from work for the birth or adoption of a child. The term "parental leave" encompasses several types of complementary entitlements, including:

- ❖ Government funded parental leave pay
- ❖ Unpaid parental leave
- ❖ Adoption leave
- ❖ Foster parent leave

The Paid Parental Leave scheme (Government funded) is an entitlement for working parents of children born or adopted from the 1 January 2011. Working parents, including full-time, part-time and casual workers may be eligible for Parental Leave Pay if they meet the scheme's eligibility criteria.

You have to be an Australian resident, be the primary carer, and meet the work and income tests in order to be eligible.

The Government funded paid leave scheme does not provide eligible employees with a new entitlement to leave, the leave entitlement remains the same the only difference is there is an entitlement to paid parental leave. The scheme provides Government-funded Parental Leave Pay at the National Minimum Wage for a maximum period of 18 weeks. Parental Leave Pay can commence from the date of birth or adoption, or at a later date. It must be taken in one continuous period and must all be used before 12 months from the date of birth or adoption.

Parental Leave Pay is taxable and can be received before, after, or at the same time as existing entitlements such as annual leave, long service leave etc.

Under the NES (National Employment Standards) employees with 12 months or more of continuous services with an employer are entitled to take up to 12 months of unpaid parental leave from work. You can also request an additional 12 months unpaid leave on top of this.

In order to apply for Parental Leave, the employee must give written notice to the Association. This notice must be provided at least 10 weeks before the start of the leave with the intended start and end dates of the leave. These dates must be confirmed again at least four weeks prior to going on leave. Evidence, such as a medical certificate or statutory declaration, of the expected date of birth or date of placement or adoption will also be required.

To apply for Parental Leave Pay, you must contact Centrelink, who will then contact the Association to arrange payment. You will receive fortnightly payments in line with the current pay cycle and will continue to receive your pay slips.

4.4 Personal/Carer's Leave

Being at work in accordance with your roster is expected and is considered an important factor in overall employee performance.

We recognise that occasionally it may be necessary for you to be absent from work as a result of illness. Personal/Carer's leave (only applicable to permanent part time and full time employees) accrues progressively throughout the year according to the employee's ordinary hours of work, at the rate of 10 days per year of service.

Employees must complete and submit a Leave Application form before personal/carers leave will be paid, and may be required to provide evidence of illness or injury to the satisfaction of the Association.

An employee is required to promptly notify their Manager if they are going to be absent from work due to illness or injury, and of approximate duration of their absence, if the employee fails to promptly notify the employer (unless it is due to circumstances outside of the employee's control) the Association is not required to pay the employee for the day, and may commence disciplinary action.

If an employee is absent for more than 2 consecutive days and is absent prior to or after a public holiday, the employee may be required to provide a medical certificate that states the nature of the illness, and the period of required absence from work. The Association may question a medical certificate that is illegible, post-dated, lacks detail or does not certify the authenticity of the illness. If satisfactory evidence is not provided, the employer is not required to pay the employee for the absence, and may be able to commence disciplinary action against the employee.

At least six (6) hours' notice is required, if possible, for absence from work to allow time for a replacement.

More personal leave rules:

- Personal leave is not paid on termination
- An employee who suffers illness or injury during another form of leave (e.g. annual leave) cannot “swap” that other leave for personal leave without consent
- Personal leave is not intended to be used for pre-scheduled or routine medical appointments
- Personal leave cannot be cashed out
- Personal leave is only paid where there is an entitlement. If personal leave has not been accrued, there is no obligation for payment

4.5 Compassionate Leave

Compassionate Leave is a paid entitlement of two days provided under the Act to all employees, except for casuals. It is separate from personal/carer's leave entitlement, in that it is paid from the employers' own pocket and is not deducted from an employee's personal/carer's leave accrual. The entitlement is available to an eligible employee for each occasion where a member of their immediate family or household:

- Has an illness or injury that poses a serious threat to their life (to spend time with)
- Passes away (to grieve, make arrangements and attend funeral)

Definitions

An immediate family member includes: a spouse, child, parent, grandparent, grandchild or sibling of the employee, or of the spouse of the employee.

A spouse includes: a former spouse, a de facto spouse, and a former de facto spouse

A child includes: an adopted child, a stepchild, and an adult child.

Payment for compassionate leave is at the rate that the employee would reasonably have expected to receive had they actually worked.

4.6 Staff Meetings

The Association believes that regular meetings of staff in its service are essential to reinforce teamwork, quality processes and provide opportunities for open communication.

It is a condition of your employment that all employees are required to attend the regular staff meetings. If the staff meeting is held on a day that you are not rostered, please see your Manager if eligible to claim for attending the meeting.

4.7 Commitment to Training

The Association encourages the professional development of employees' through attendance and participation in approved meetings, seminars, conferences, symposiums etc. which are directly related to the Association's operations, activities and objectives and which will place employees in a position to improve their job performance. It is the responsibility of the Association and its employees to ensure that all staff are appropriately trained and have current knowledge related to their field.

Opportunities for training may be limited by budget considerations. Prior approval will need to be obtained before any training is authorised.

4.8 Public Holiday

If your shift falls on a recognised public holiday, you will be required to work that shift. Payment will be in accordance with the pay rates set down for that public holiday.

A copy of the award and NES (National Employment Standards) are located in the office.

4.9 Library

The Alzheimer's Association of Queensland has an extensive library which is located at the Association's Resource Centre. All staff are eligible to borrow any reference material, books, video tapes, DVD and journals. A borrower's registration must be completed before borrowing is permitted.

Please ensure that you do not complete or sign a timesheet on anyone else's behalf.

6.8 Salary Sacrifice

Salary sacrificing arrangements may be offered to full time, permanent part time or casual staff members who work 3 or more shifts per week. Staff who work less than three shifts per week are eligible to apply for salary sacrifice but the benefit of salary sacrifice maybe diminished as your tax payable may not be enough.

Salary sacrifice is a system whereby a portion of an employee's gross salary or wage is paid as a benefit before tax, rather than directly as salary, thereby usually reducing the amount of tax paid by the employee on the income.

The Associations offers salary sacrificing through the Employment Benefits Card facility offered by the Westpac Bank. Other options may be available, please call the Payroll Office to discuss.

Please contact the Community Services Manager or the Human Resources Manager for further information.

Please note: AAQ is a Public Benevolent Institution (PBI) and therefore able to access these salary sacrifice arrangements.

6.9 Rosters

Rosters will be displayed two weeks prior to the commencement of the current roster period. Each roster will be for a period of two weeks.

Seven (7) days' notice must be given by the staff member requesting any change to the current roster, the exclusion to this would be if a staff member was sick or in an emergency situation.

The Manager is the only authorised personnel to approve or alter the roster.

6.9.1 Attendance and Absenteeism

Regular attendance contributes significantly toward better team effort and operations; each employee is very important to the smooth operation of the Association. Good attendance is an essential component of solid employee performance.

Occasionally, however, it may be necessary for you to be absent from work as a result of illness, injury or other appropriate personal reasons. In such cases, you are expected to give your Manager as much advance notice as possible before the beginning of your scheduled starting time. This advance notification is necessary in order that appropriate arrangements can be made to handle your work during your absence. If you must leave work, your Manager should be notified as far in advance as possible.

Notification of inability to work due to illness is encouraged to be by 4pm prior to the day of leave. This allows time for your shift to be covered and not leave your colleagues or consumers without support

Absences are classified into two categories – Excused and Unexcused.

Excused Absences - Excused absences are earned through length of service or are a result of factors beyond your control, such as holidays, annual leave, sick leave, bereavement leave.

It is expected you will commence work on time. Unavoidable delays cannot be foreseen, but a quick call would be appreciated if it is possible to make one.

Unexcused Absences - Unexcused absences occur upon failure to report to work as expected. Any unexcused absence of any duration will be considered an occurrence. Employees will receive a disciplinary warning for each occurrence. Two or more occurrences of unexcused absence within a three month period will result in disciplinary measures up to and including dismissal.

Being on the job, ready to work and on time, and in a fit state is very important. Each employee was hired for a specific contribution to the overall business of the Association. When you are absent or late, you are missed and the service experiences disruption.

If you are going to be absent or late unexpectedly, you must call your Manager at or before the assigned starting time. Without this notification to your Manager, your absence will be counted as unexcused and could have a detrimental effect on your future employment.

Further to this, you are expected to remain at your work assignment for your full work period except for lunch and break periods. Do not leave the job without your Manager's permission.

Anyone who is absent for more than one day must stay in regular contact with his/her Manager (i.e., three-day virus infection – call each day; 3 weeks leave for surgery – keep in regular contact).

6.11 Reporting Accidents and Incidents

In order to fulfil the Association's workplace health and safety objectives, the Association is committed to ensuring all injuries and incidents that occur are reported promptly and accurately.

Reporting injuries and incidents aids in the initiation of preventative actions to control or limit future incidents, which may endanger the health and safety of employees. It is only reporting every injury and incident that the proper treatment for injuries can be given and appropriate action taken to prevent further incidents occurring. These arrangements also apply to particular illnesses and diseases which may become apparent.

Occupational injuries that require medical treatment other than first aid or that result in lost time, are required by state and federal laws to be reported by the Association. In either of these instances, the facts are to be reported to your Manager as soon as possible after the occurrence, and the appropriate report forms completed.

All employees must report all work related injuries and incidents, no matter how small. Upon informing the manager these incidents should be entered into RiskMan Incident Management Program.

All employees should be aware of the Policies and Procedures surrounding incident reporting including workers' compensation and rehabilitation.

6.12 Workers' Compensation

If you are injured at work, you will be subject to the coverage of the workers' compensation cover held by the Association. Any 'on-the-job' injury must be reported to your Manager as soon as it occurs, and full details recorded.

Either complete the appropriate Workers Compensation Application form available from the WorkCover website. Or you can send this information to the Human Resource Manager who will lodge it with WorkCover on your behalf. Please ensure that the incident is documented in RiskMan Incident Management Program as soon as possible following the incident.

The Human Resources Manager and Payroll Officer is the current Association's Rehabilitation Return to Work Coordinators.

7. PERSONNEL AND TRAINING POLICIES

7.1 Probationary Period

All new employees will undertake initial employment, which is known as "minimum employment period". The length of the minimum employment period (probationary period) is for six (6) months.

During this probationary period, your Manager will evaluate your work, personal traits, willingness and general fitness for the job.

7.2 Staff Training and Development Plans

Staff Training and Development Plans are conducted annually by the Manager. After your plan has been developed, you will have a discussion with the Community Services Manager or Regional Home Care Manager where any issues or concerns will be discussed. All discussions are confidential.

All employees are expected to comply with performance standards relevant to the Association. Failure to consistently achieve the levels which are set in line with the Associations standards/guidelines, industry standards and your Position Description will result in counselling, training, and as a last resort, disciplinary action, which may unfortunately, lead to termination.

7.3 Full-Time, Part-Time and Casual Employees

Employment classification is as follows:

- Full-time Permanent Employees. Employees hired to work the normal, full-time 38 hour week on a regular basis
- Part-time Employees. Employees hired to work more than 16 hours per fortnight and less than 76 hours per fortnight
- Casual Employees. Employees engaged as a casual to work on an hourly basis for the Association, whose hours of employment may be varied from time to time as required. The maximum number of hours worked may also be specified in your Contract.

Inappropriate verbal incidents may result in disciplinary procedure/s being initiated.

8.1.3 Rumours and Gossiping

Rumours are always destructive to all concerned – they benefit no one. For information about the Association or about things that are being done that you think will affect your job, ask your Manager. Please feel free to do this. Don't depend on rumours; get the facts.

You are expected to discourage the practice of starting or spreading rumours and gossip and to refrain from being a party to such actions, as they can only harm harmonious working relationships in your service.

8.1.4 Alcohol and Substance Abuse

The misuse of legitimate drugs, or the use, possession, distribution or sale of illicit or non-prescribed controlled drugs on organisation premises is strictly prohibited and will result in disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal. Except at approved functions, no employees shall consume, have in their possession, distribute or sell alcoholic beverages or any other mind altering substance on organisation premises. To do so is a prime cause for termination of employment. Employees may be subjected to random Drug and Alcohol testing based upon reasonable suspicion.

Being unfit at work because of use of drugs or alcohol is strictly prohibited and is grounds for dismissal. While this policy refers specifically to alcohol and drugs, it is intended to apply to all forms of substance abuse.

Contractors and common carriers are also covered by this policy. Those who violate the policy will be removed from the Associations premises and may be denied future entry.

If a person is deemed to be under the influence of drugs or alcohol during work hours, then that person will be required to take sick leave until they are no longer affected by the drugs or alcohol.

When supporting a social outing where the consumer would like to have food and beverage, the consumer is to pay for their own. If providing in-home respite staff are to take their own morning tea and lunch. At other times food is to be consumed during your rostered breaks.

All employees need to be aware that the Associations policies on sexual harassment and workplace harassment apply to the transmission of offensive material either through the www or e-mail. The distribution of pornographic or sexually explicit material through the Associations e-mail or other electronic means will not be tolerated and will be dealt with as a serious disciplinary issue.

The Management may authorise access to any information stored on the Associations IT resources. This is to ensure continuity of business at all times.

Staff are to ensure that they are familiar with the Association's Technology Security procedure (RES-P-11) and in particular section 4.2 which prohibits staff from conducting personal business on the Association's computers. Staff must also at all times comply with AAQ Social media policy.

Under Qld State Anti-Discrimination laws, discrimination in employment on the basis of the following attributes is prohibited:

In accordance with federal and state laws, we recruit, hire, promote and evaluate all personnel without regard to race, religion, colour, sex, marital status and handicap and any other discriminatory characteristic, except where such characteristic is an appropriate bona fide occupational qualification which would prevent the potential employee from performing the job for which they are being considered. Job applicants and present employees are evaluated solely on ability, experience, qualification and the requirements of the job.

8.1.10 Workplace Harassment & Discrimination

Workplace harassment and discrimination occurs when a person is discriminated against or harassed because of their race, colour, descent or national or ethnic origin etc, as defined under the Racial Discrimination Act 1975 or because of their sex, marital status, pregnancy

This means acting as a role model for staff to demonstrate appropriate behaviour. Incidents of harassment are to be treated seriously and immediate action must be taken to deal with complaints.

What an Employee should do if they are harassed

If an employee believes they are being harassed in any way, they should not ignore it. Take action in the following manner:

- Discuss the situation with your immediate Manager or Human Resources Manager

Complaints Procedure

The Association has a complaints procedure which employees can use if they wish to take further action after speaking to their immediate Manager/Human Resources Manager. The procedure is flexible. It provides an opportunity for action to be taken that is appropriate in each individual case. This could include mediation and conciliation and disciplinary action where appropriate.

In the first instance you are requested to formalise, in writing, your complaint with your immediate Manager/ Human Resources Manager. - observance of confidentiality
- acceptance of the legitimacy of the complainant's feelings
- support and protection for all parties
- empowerment of complainants; and
- preservation of a non-judgemental and non-adversarial approach by mediators.

The Association will make every endeavour to resolve complaints; employees can approach the Anti-Discrimination Commission of Queensland (ADCQ) for advice.

When the employer receives a complaint:

- Prompt action will be taken and the strictest confidentiality ensured.
- The complainant will be interviewed and the nature of the complaint clarified.
- The complainant may wish to seek independent advice and or representation
- The complainant will be notified of alternatives available in resolving the complaint.
- A full explanation of the conciliation process and possible outcomes of such action will be given to the complainant.
- The complaint will only be proceeded, if so requested by the complainant.
- A meeting between the employer and the alleged harasser will be arranged.
- The alleged harasser will be fully informed of the complaint, the name of the complainant and the complaint procedures.
- The alleged harasser may wish to seek independent advice and or representation.
- The alleged harasser will be given the opportunity to fully respond to the allegations and to assist in the complaint resolution.
- The complainant will be informed of the discussion and outcomes of the meeting between the employer and the alleged harasser. Any proposal for resolution will be discussed.

- Written records will be kept to establish the facts and all documents will be kept secure. Information on the allegation will only be accessible to those whose job it is to deal with complaints. These records may be accessed where it is appropriate and does not breach either Privacy provisions or individual confidentiality.

Changes to personality, mood and difficulty using and/or understanding language may also occur.

Dementia symptoms can be classified into (1) irreversible causes and (2) reversible causes.

Irreversible causes of dementia include a number of diseases/conditions which affect the brain and lead to progressive and permanent damage to brain cells. Alzheimer's disease is the most common form of irreversible dementia, and is commonly caused by stroke and heart disease.

Challenging behaviours are difficult for everyone involved. Whilst managing these behaviours may be part of the job, it is not acceptable for workers to be hurt.

Report early signs of challenging behaviours. Talk about your concerns with your supervisor or at team meetings. Early reporting enables management to take action.

Preventing challenging behaviours:

Any situation or feeling can act as a trigger for challenging behaviour. This is frequently unpredictable. However, the approach made towards the person is very important.

- Pause – stand back, take a moment to assess the situation, before approaching again.
- Speak slowly and clearly in a calm voice.
- Explain your care actions.
- Try not to rush the person, act calmly.
- Show respect and treat people with dignity at all times.

- Minimise boredom, social isolation and irritating factors in the environment such as noise, uncomfortable clothing.
- Enhance comfort, exercise, participation in activities, decision making and dignity.

Communication is the key:

Avoid harsh aggressive or abrupt statements. Don't say things such as "You must...", "Don't...", "Stop.....". Use alternatives and "I" language like "I would like you to..." "It would help me if.....", "I feel scared when.....".

- When challenging behaviour happens
- Back off where possible.
- Keep calm.
- Call for help.
- Leave the person to calm down, if possible.
- Remove others from the environment, if possible.
- Be aware of body language and tone of voice used to the person.

Alzheimer's Queensland has duty of care to do all things possible to prevent or minimise any harm that may occur as a result of challenging behaviours. This includes providing a means of communication for emergencies, an emergency response system and procedures.
