

McNally House (Garden City Aged Care Services)

Application for Admission

This is an application for you to apply to enter Garden City Aged Care Services. (Referred to as our "Service").

Please read this application carefully. The information you provide with this application will help us determine if we can provide the care and services, you need and is necessary for us to determine your likely fees and charges.

This is not an offer of a place at our Service. We do not guarantee that as a result of completing this application we will be able to offer you a place at our Service or that all of the types of room you might inspect at the Service will be available when you wish to enter the Service.

This application is retained by the Service and is not provided to the Department of Social Services, Department of Veteran Affairs, Department of Human Services, Centrelink, or any other Government Agency.

If you wish to apply for admission to a residential aged care service, you must first obtain approval from the Aged Care Assessment Team. If you wish to have an assessment undertaken to determine whether you are eligible to obtain financial assistance to help pay for your care and accommodations costs, you should contact the Department of Social Services.

Further information is available on the My Aged Care website at www.myagedcare.gov.au.

Application for admission

This application requires that you provide the following:

1. Personal information.
2. Information about your financial position that is necessary for us to determine your likely Fees and Charges.
3. Accommodation information – We have attached a Schedule of Fees and Charges that sets out the price we can charge for the rooms in our Service. The Fees and Charges in the Schedule attached are correct at the time we provide the application to you but are subject to change. You must make a choice about how you want to pay for your accommodation within 28 days after you enter the Service and we have included the form we will require you to execute after you enter the service to make that choice.
4. A Statutory Declaration stating that the information you provide to us in this application is true and correct.

If we can offer you a place and you decide you wish to enter the service, you will need to sign a resident agreement. We have attached a sample copy of our Resident Agreement and a completed version of which you will need to sign prior to admission. The Resident Agreement outlines your and our rights and responsibilities if you enter our Service.

The financial information you record in this application should accompany or be used in completing a 'Request for an Assets Assessment' or Income Assessments form (if necessary) to the relevant Agency (Department of Human Services, Centrelink, or Department of Veteran Affairs). This will enable Centrelink or Department of Veteran Affairs to work out how much you need to contribute to the costs of your care and accommodation. If you do not wish to provide us with any financial information you do not have to but if you do not provide that information, we will need to charge you the maximum amount permissible under the Aged Care Act 1997 (Cth) for your care and accommodation.

We will comply with the provisions of the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and the Australian Privacy Principles in dealing with the information you provide to us with this application. The information we collect may be used for any purpose that is directly related to our functions or activities as an aged care provider or as otherwise permitted at law. For more information on how we handle your personal information, you may review the Privacy Policy and Collection Statement. Both of these documents are available at our Service.

A decision to enter a nursing home is a significant decision. We encourage you to seek independent legal, financial, and other advice about the nature and effect of this application, the Resident Agreement and living in the Service.

If you wish to proceed, please complete the forms, and provide all of the information we have requested in this application and return it to us at:

Step 2 - Financial Information

Overview

If you are applying to receive respite care, you do not need to complete this section of the Application.

The information we have requested is necessary for us to determine your likely fees and charges.

If you are applying for an income and asset test with the Department of Human Services, you will be required to complete and lodge the relevant form with them. The Department will make an assessment on your ability to contribute to the cost of your care and accommodation.

You are not required to apply for an income and asset test before entering our Service. However if you do not apply for an income and asset test, we will need to charge you the maximum amount permitted under the Aged Care Act 1997 (Cth) for your care and accommodation which is set out in the attached Schedule of Fees and Charges.

If you ask us, we can provide you with an estimate of the maximum amount we can charge you for care and accommodation. We cannot advise you of the exact amount you will be required to pay until the Department has completed the assessment of your ability to contribute to the cost of your care and accommodation.

Please ensure all questions are answered and that you do not leave any blank spaces. Please also make sure you sign the Statutory Declaration at the end of this application form.

ROOM DESCRIPTIONS / KEY FEATURES STATEMENTS

McNally House

McNally House has been designed specifically to provide a separate and unique home for residents with dementia. Each level is a different house and operate independently from each other. Our small familiar environment mirrors the rhythms and routines of home life. The interior design and choice of colours, lighting, textures, and furnishings have been chosen with reference to mid-century modern. An interior composed of open plan organic, clean lines. Featuring light weight walnut timber furniture incorporating use of block colours and graphic patterns in fabrics and artwork. The design choices utilised follow our organisations philosophy to promote choice, minimize confusion and maximise independence.

The building features an abundance of natural light with the inclusion of large windows and openable doors that connect internal spaces to beautiful outdoor courtyards and meaningful entertainment areas. Research has proven health benefits of natural light on improved circadian rhythm and Vitamin D production hence the presence of natural light was integral to the design. The ground floor allows for seamless connections between indoor and outdoor spaces, linking buildings and providing recreational walkways for mobile residents. The ground level features two central courtyards, one adjacent to Palm Court and the other featuring a central breezeway courtyard to the new building. The courtyards are designed to connect residents' homes, they are shaded with various styles of seating/dining and BBQ facilities. Similarly, the upper levels maintain strong links to external views and places for residents to enjoy outdoors.

The floor plate of each home has been designed to include a sitting room adjacent to a pod of bedrooms, so there is an intimate living room in close proximity to all bedrooms. The living spaces are familiar and unique from each other allowing residents to have a sense of ownership and personalisation; encouraging families to spend more time with their loved ones by providing areas to entertain and additional space for not only the residents but their families to feel at home. All sitting rooms have tea and coffee facilities, in beautifully decorated interiors with a variety of sitting and dining options giving flexibility in everyday use. Domestic style kitchen on each level have been designed to encourage participation in food preparation and form part of the lifestyle program with cooking and baking activities. The central placement of the kitchen is paramount in evoking the senses. Resident meals are prepared and finished in the kitchen and the residents sit down together to enjoy the meal. The interior of each home is layered with furniture, artwork and objects that promote conversation, touch on nostalgic memories, and evoke joy. Colour, texture and pattern all aid in creating the domestic interiors, feeling as though you have walked into a family home.

All bedrooms offer the identical level of amenity, completed to cater for residents with high care needs the considered floorplans have discreet built in ceiling mount hoists, nurse call and German designed medical beds. Each room features a spacious footprint with access to a personal Juliette balcony, openable screened louvre windows and the doors to Juliette balcony which create flexibility for residents with ventilation and an abundance of natural light. The rooms have ample storage for clothing and open shelves for personal belongings, built in picture rail system to display family photographs and artwork.

The Contemporary design of the bedroom interior features luxurious specification. Materials have been selected for their high performance and durability to operate in a care environment with an aesthetic that is homely and far from clinical. The lighting levels in the rooms accommodate varying resident needs creating an enabling environment to maximise independence and prevent excess disability. The lighting also takes into consideration how the staff are able to access the bedroom with minimal distraction and disturbance to residents while resting. Each room has a 43" inch TV with internet access and MATV features, personal bar fridge and built in USB ports. The design maximises independence with large format power points and light switches. The spacious ensuite cater for high care needs, with direct vision to the toilet providing visual cues for dementia residents with seamless transition from bedroom to bathroom taking into consideration varying needs of residents.

Specialist staff have been specifically recruited and trained to service resident needs. The unit will be operated by a single, stable roster of staff. The unit will use a psychosocial, person-centred and goal oriented philosophy and approach to care that builds on or maintains the strengths and capability of individuals, based on the service delivery principles.

Residents can also participate in the full and active lifestyle program, if they choose, which offers a range of group and individual activities, including music and art appreciation, flexibility and fitness sessions, shopping and dining trips, pet therapy and happy hours.
